[13 July 1816.]

17 C. 107 & 108.
5th. (B.)

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty, until Twelve Months after the Ratification of the Disputes Treaty of Peace, certain additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain, a Drawback in payment and allowed of Four Shillings and Eleven pence for every Barrel of Strong Beer or Ale brewed or made in Great Britain, above Eighteen Shillings the Barrel exclusive of the Duty, and not being Two penny Ale, mentioned and defined in the Seventh Article of the Treaty of Union with Scotland, which shall be duly exported to

WHEREAS it is expedient to make certain Provisions for regulating the imposing Fines in respect of the Distillation of Spirits in Ireland: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Person in Ireland, other than a Person duly licensed as a Distiller or Brewer, to have or keep in his or her Custody or Possession any Wort, Wash or Pot Ale (except for the Purpose of being made into Beer for the private Use of such Person, Proof of which shall lie on such Person), nor for any Person other than a licensed Distiller, to have or keep in his or her Custody or Possession any Low Wines or Saggles whatever; and that it shall not be lawful for any Person to be Owner or Proprietor, or Part Owner or Proprietor, of any Still, other than such Person as shall be a licensed Distiller or Partner of such licensed Distiller, or a Brewer duly licensed to make or reuse Stills, or Person otherwise duly authorized by Law; and that it shall not be lawful for any Person to have, receive or deliver any Beards, Uls, Pinks or Advantage, of or from any Still, Still Head or Worm of a Still kept, used and worked in any Place not being the Distillery of a Distiller duly licensed, or of or from any Wort, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, Saggles or Spirits, made, brewed, fermented or distilled in any Place not being the Distillery of a Distiller duly licensed; and if any Person shall at any time after the passing of this Act have or keep in his or her Custody or Possession any Wort, Wash, Low Wines or Saggles, or shall be Owner or Proprietor, or Part Owner or Proprietor of any Still, Still Head or Worm of a Still, or shall have, receive or deliver any Beards, Uls, Pinks or Advantage of or from any Still, Still Head or Worm of a Still, or of or from any Wort, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines, Saggles or Spirits contrary to the Provisions of this Act, every such Person shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace within his Jurisdiction, on Information on Oath of any such Officer, to issue his Warrant for the Apprehension of such Person or Persons, and on Examination into the Complaint, to commit such Person to Goal, there to remain until delivered by due Course of Law; and in case any Indictment shall be found against such Person or Persons, he, she or they shall plead thereto without having cause to traverse the same; and it shall be lawful for the Court before whom such Person or Persons shall be tried and convicted, to inflict such Punishment on such Person or Persons, for the first Offence, as may by Law be inflicted on Persons guilty of Misdemeanors, and for the Second Offence, to sentence such Person is convicted to be transported for the Term of Seven Years, or instead thereof it shall be lawful for the said Court to inflict either for the first or further Offence such Punishments as are respectively hereinafter provided.

II. And Whereas from the great Number of dissolute and disorderly Persons who have been convicted and imprisoned for the Offence of carrying on illicit Distillation, many of the Goods in Irish are so crowded as not only very much to endanger the Health of the Prisoners, but also to accrue the Depravity of their Minds; and it is therefore expedient under certain Regulations to provide other Places of Confinement for them: And Whereas it will tend to avoid the crowding of Goals, and also to the Reformation of such Offenders, that they should be employed, under certain Regulations, on Works for the Benefit of the Rivers and Harbours of Irish: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, whenever any Person shall be convicted of a Misdemeanor under this Act, or any other Act or Acts for the Suppression of illicit Distillation in Irish, or shall be committed of any Offence under this Act, or any of the said Acts, for which he shall be liable to be transported, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom any such Person shall be so convicted, if such Court shall think fit, in the Place of any other Punishment for such Misdemeanor, or in the Place of such Punishment by Transportation, to order and adjudge that such Offender, appearing to be of competent Age and free from any bodily Infirmary, shall be punished by being kept for such Term, not exceeding Two Years, in case of any First Offence, and not exceeding Five Years in case of any Second or further Offence, as such Court shall think fit, to order and adjudge on board any Ship, Barge or Vessel, properly accommodated for the Security, Employment and Health of the Persons to be confined therein, and by being employed in hard Labour in the raising Sand, Soil and Gravel from, and clearing any River in Irish navigable for Ships of Burthen, or any Port, Harbour or Haven in Irish, such River, Port, Harbour or Haven being previously approved and appointed for that Purpose by Order of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Irish, and His Majesty's Privy Council of Irish, or to any other Service for the Benefit of the Navigation of any such River, Port, Harbour or Haven, or in any other public Works upon the Banks or Slopes of any such River, Port, Harbour or Haven, under the Management and Direction of such Superintendent or Superintendents as shall be appointed for that Purpose by the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Irish, and under such Rules, Regulations and Directions as shall from time to time be made by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, and His Majesty's Privy Council of Irish, for the carrying such Persons into effect.

III. And Whereas by an Act made in the Fifth fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled “An Act in amendment of the Fifth third Year of His present Majesty for settling in His Majesty certain Parts of Windsor Forest in the County of Berks, and for making the open Commonable Lands within the said Forest, &c.” it was among other things enacted and provided, that John Nash and John Davers, the Commissioners named in the said first recited Act of the Fifth third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and their Successors, should order and execute their Award under the said last mentioned Act within the Space of Twelve Calendar Months from and after the passing of the said Act of the Fifth fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in the same Manner and Form, and under the like Regulations in all Respects as in the said recited Act of the Fifth third Year of His present Majesty is directed: And Whereas it is expedient that the Time for making the said Award should be further extended, and that such other Provisions be made as heretofore mentioned: Be it therefore further enacted, That the time for making the said Award by and under the Authority of the said first recited Act of the Fifth third Year of His present Majesty shall be and is hereby further extended to the Twelfth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and seven; and the said Commissioners and their Successors, by and under the said first recited Act are hereby authorized and required to make their said Award in the same manner and Form, and under the like Regulations in all Respects as in the said first recited Act is directed, on or before the said Twelfth Day of March one thousand eight hundred and seven.

V. And Whereas in and by the said first recited Act it is, among other things recited, that the Most Honourable Arthur Marquis of Devonshire is seized to himself and his Heirs of the Manor and Park of Eggleston, in the said County of Berks, and in respect thereof is entitled to the Soil of the Waste Lands in the said Manor; and after further reciting that the said Arthur Marquis of Devonshire possessed that the said Manor, and also the said Park, to which he derived his Title through and under certain Grants made by His Majesty's Royal Proclamations, and other Assurances, were exempt from all the Laws of the said Forest, and all the Rights of the Crown, in respect thereof, and consequently that His said Majesty was not entitled to any Adjustment of Land within the said Manor or Parish, it was therefore enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by His Attorney General, to proceed to a Trial at Law at the next Spring Assizes for the County of Berks, in a legal Action or Actions for that Purpose, to be commenced in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer at Westminster, against the said Arthur Marquis of Devonshire, his Heirs or Assigns, or the Person or Persons entitled to the said Manor for the time being, in manner therein mentioned; and if at the Trial of any such Issue or Issues, it should appear that His Majesty was not entitled to any Forefeal Right or Interest within the said Manor and Parish of Eggleston, for which a Compensation ought to be made, then such Jury or Juries by whom such Issue or Issues should be tried, should find for the Defendant or Defendants, in which case the said Act or any thing therein contained should not apply to or affect the said Manor and Parish, or any Part thereof; but if it should appear * to such Jury or Juries that His said Majesty was entitled to such Forestal Rights or Interests within the same Manor and Parish, as were claimed by and belonged to His Majesty in and over the Parishes and Places within the Regard of the said Forest, then such Jury or Juries should find for the Plaintiff, and then and in such case the said Manor and Parish should be deemed to be within the Provisions of the said Act, and the Commons and Waste Lands thereof should be subject to such Provisions and Regulations as to the Proportion thereof to be awarded to His Majesty, as were in the said Act contained in relation to the said Parishes and Manors, and Wastes and Commons, within the Regard of the said Forest; but if should appear to the said Jury that His Majesty was entitled to Forestal Rights within the same Manor and Parish, but that such Rights had been diminished or restricted by Grants or Charters, or other Means, so as that such Forestal Rights of His Majesty were not so extensive in the said Manor and Parish as in the other Parishes and Manors mentioned in the said Act, then and in such last mentioned case such Jury or Juries should find and declare by their Verdict, that His Majesty had only inherited Forestal Rights in the said Manor and Parish, which should be endorsed on the Petition; and then the said Jury or Juries, in addition to the Verdict or Verdicts given in the Issue or Issues joined, should assess and award what Proportion of the Soil of the Waste and Open Lands within the same Manor and Parish would be a just and fair Compensation for such His said Majesty's Forestal Rights therein: And Whereas the said Issue was tried before a Special Jury at the Sessions of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, holden for the said County of Berks, when such Jury trying the same (among other things) found by their Verdict, that the said Manor and Parish of Easthampstead, continuously from time immemorial, had been and were within the Manor and (except the said Park) Parcel of the said Forest, and that the said Park was, up to and until the second Day of June in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the First, also within the Manor and Parcel of the said Forest, and that the said Park of Easthampstead was situate within the said Manor and Parish of Easthampstead, and that His present Majesty was not entitled to any Forestal Right or Interest within the said Park; but that the same Park was exempt from all the Laws of the said Forest, and all the Rights of the Crown in respect thereof; and the said Jury also found that His said present Majesty, and His Predecessors, Kings and Queens of England, had continuously, from time immemorial, within the same Manor and Parish (except in the said Park, from the said second Day of June in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King Charles the First) exercised such Forestal Rights and Interests as were claimed by and belonged to His Majesty in and over the Parishes and Places within the Regard of the said Forest, and that before and on the Twenty seventh Day of February in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of the late King Henry the Third the said Manor and Parish were within the Regard of the said Forest, but whether or not His said present Majesty was entitled to any Forestal Right or Interest within the said Manor and Parish of Easthampstead and out of the said Park, for which a Compensation ought to be made under and by virtue of the said Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His said present Majesty, the said Jury find they were ignorant, and therefore by a Special Verdict referred the same to the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, in which Court the said Action was brought: And Whereas the Barons of the said Court have lately adjudged and determined upon the said Special Verdict, that His present Majesty was entitled to such Forestal Rights and Interests within the said Manor and Parish of Easthampstead out of the said Park as were claimed by and belong to His Majesty in and over the Parishes and Places within the Regard of the said Forest: And Whereas Doubts have arisen as to what Proportion of the Wastes within the said Manor and Parish (after such Verdict and Judgement as aforesaid) His said Majesty is entitled, and in order to shew the said Doubts it hath been proposed by the said Marquis that it shall be referred to Robert Gifford Esquire Barrister at Law, as well on the Part of His Majesty as on the behalf of the said Marquis, to ascertain and determine whether the Forestal Rights and Interests of His Majesty in and over the said Manor and Parish are diminished or restricted, and if he shall determine that they are, then to award how far and in what Proportion the same are diminished or restricted in consequence of the said Park being found to be situate within the said Manor and Parish, and to be exempt from all the Laws of the said Forest, and all the Rights of the Crown in respect thereof; provided that the said Robert Gifford shall and do within Four Calendar Months from and after the passing of this Act, make his Award in Writing upon the Subject hereby referred to him, and cause the same to be delivered at the Office of His Majesty's Surveyor General of Woods and Forests for and on the Part of His Majesty, and unto the said Marquis, his Solicitor or Agent, which Award so to be made and delivered of and concerning the Premises, shall be binding and conclusive, as well upon His said Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as upon the said Marquis, his Heirs and Assigns.

Marquis of Devonshire's Claim of Exemption from the Laws of the Forest in respect of his Manor and Park of Eggleston.

VI. And be it further enacted, That after the making and Delivery of such Award as last aforesaid, if the said Robert Gifford shall award that His Majesty's Forestal Rights and Interests are diminished or restricted, then the said Commissioners and their Successors, or the Umpire to be appointed by them in pursuance of the Power contained in the said first recited Act, shall and they are hereby required and directed to deduct from the said Nine thirty second Parts such Proportion as the said Robert Gifford shall, in manner aforesaid, determine and award, ought to be deducted therefrom in consequence of the said Park being found to be exempt from all the Laws of the said Forest, and all the Rights of the Crown in respect thereof, and shall proceed to Whereas to ascertain whether the Forestal Rights of His Majesty over the said Manor are diminished or restricted and agreed to be made thereupon.

Proceedings of the said Award shall be made.

for out, allot and award unto and for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Remainder only of the said Nine thirty second Parts, after such Deductions therefrom as aforesaid, Quantity, Quality and Situation considered, is satisfaction of His Majesty's Forefeited Rights and Interests in and over the said Manor and Parish; but if the said Robert Gifford shall not make his Award on or before the time herein appointed for that Purpose, or if he shall award that His Majesty's Forefeited Rights and Interests in the said Manor and Parish are not dissolved or relinquished in consequence of the said Park being found to be exempt from all the Leases of the said Forest and all the Rights of the Crown in respect thereof, then they the said Commissioners shall sit out, allot and award, unto and for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, so much of the Open and Waste Lands within the said Manor and Parish as, Quantity, Quality and Situation considered, shall be equal to Nine thirty second Parts of the whole of the Waste Lands in the said Manor and Parish, in satisfaction of His Majesty's Forefeited Rights and Interests in and over the said Manor and Parish, any thing herein or in the said recited Acts contained to the contrary hereof in anywise notwithstanding.

An Act for authorizing the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland to order the Payment of a certain Sum of Money to be applied in completing the Crinan Canal. [18th July 1816.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making and maintaining a Navigable Canal from Loch Gilp to Loch Crinan in the Shire of Argyll, the several Persons therein named were incorporated by the Name of The Company of Proprietors of the Crinan Canal for the Purpose of making and completing the said Canal and other necessary Works; which Act was amended and rendered more effectual by an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act passed in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled 'An Act for making and maintaining a Navigable Canal from Loch Gilp to Loch Crinan in the Shire of Argyll'; And Whereas a large Sum of Money having been subscribed before the passing of the said first recited Act, great Progress was thereafter made in carrying on the said Work; but many of the Subscribers having failed to make good their Subscriptions, the said Undertaking, which is of great National Importance, must have been abandoned if the Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds had not been advanced to the said Company by the Lord Chief Baron and other Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, by virtue of another Act passed in the said Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for empowering the Company of Proprietors of the Forth and Clyde Navigation, to repay into the Court of Exchequer in Scotland the Sum advanced to them, for the Purpose of completing the said Navigation's for repaying so much of an Act of the Twenty fourth Year of His present Majesty as relates to the said Company; and for enabling the Barons of the said Court of Exchequer to advance Part of the Sum so to be received, to the Company of Proprietors of the Crinan Canal, on certain Conditions; And Whereas, pursuant to the Directions of the said last recited Act, all the Tolls and Rates arising from the said Canal, and also the Canal itself, and all the Estate, Right, Title and Interest of the said Company in and to the same, and all Quays, Houses, Lands or other Property purchased for the Purposes of the said Canal, have been assigned and made over by the said Company to the Lord Chief Baron or other Barons of the said Court of Exchequer, until the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds, together with the Interest for the same after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be completely paid or satisfied: And Whereas the said Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds was applied towards completing the said Canal, but unforeseen Difficulties having arisen in carrying on the said Work, and the great Rise in the Price of Labour and Materials having augmented the Expense to its greatly to exceed the Estimate, the said Canal remained unfinished, and the Public were thereby deprived of the great Advantages which would arise therefrom to Commerce, to the Fisheries and to the Improvement of the Western Islands and North West Coast of Scotland, and the Money which had been advanced would have been lost if the further Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds had not been advanced to the said Company for completing the same, out of the Aids or Supplies granted for the Service of Great Britain, for the Year One thousand eight hundred and five, by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for authorizing the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to advance a certain Sum of Money, to be applied in completing the Crinan Canal; and pursuant to the said Act, the Rates and Duties arising from the said Canal, and all the Estate, Right, Title and Interest of the said Company in and to the same, and the Quays, Houses, Lands and other Property aforesaid, remain vested in the said Lord Chief Baron and other Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, until not only the said first mentioned Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds and all Interest for the same, but also the said further Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds advanced under the Provisions of the said Act, together with Interest for the same at and after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be completely satisfied and paid in the same manner and as fully and effectually as if another Assignment thereof had been made: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Sums of Money out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and eleven, and for further appropriating the Supplies granted to His Majesty of Parliament, a Sum not exceeding Five thousand Pounds was granted to His Majesty towards completing the Repairs which were then necessary in consequence of an Inundation of the said Canal in the Year One thousand eight hundred and eleven; and the Sum of Five thousand Pounds having been from afterwards received accordingly from the Lord Commissioners of the Treasury, the Tolls and Rates arising from the said Canal, and also the Canal itself, and all the Estate, Right, Title and Interest of the said Company, as, in and to the same, and all Quays, Houses, Lands or other Property purchased for the Purposes of the said Canal, have been assigned to the said Lord Chief Baron and other Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, until the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds, together with Interest for the same at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be completely paid or satisfied: And Whereas the said last mentioned Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds, and the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds, have been applied towards the Completion and Repair of the said Canal and other Works; but this great National Undertaking must yet be abandoned, and the Money which has been advanced will be lost, without the further Aid of

'Parliament;' May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Chief Baron and other Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and they are hereby directed, upon the Approbation of the Commissioners appointed by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds, towards defraying the Expenses of making an Island Navigation from the English Sea by Inverness and Fort William, and for taking the necessary Steps towards carrying the same, to issue their Warrant to the Receiver General of Scotland, for Payment out of any Public Money that is in his Hands of the Sum of Nineteen thousand four hundred Pounds, which Money shall be paid to the said Commissioners without any Deductions whatever, and after Payment thereof of the Charges and Expenses of obtaining this Act shall be applied in completing and repairing the said Grimsay Canal and other Works in such manner as the said Commissioners shall appoint, and until the said Sum of Nineteen thousand four hundred Pounds shall from time to time be applied in manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful so and for the said Commissioners to sever the same or each Part or Parts thereof as they shall think proper in Exchequer Bills.

II. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as the said Sum of Nineteen thousand four hundred Pounds shall be paid to the said Commissioners, the Tolls and Rates arising from the said Grimsay Canal, and also the Canal itself, and all the Estate, Right, Title and Interest of the said Company is and to the same, and all Quays, Berths, Lands or other Property, which, pursuant to the Direction of the said last mentioned Act of the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, were assigned to the said Lord Chief Baron and other Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, as a Security for the said first mentioned Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds and the Interest for the same, and which, pursuant to the said Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, remain vested in the said Lord Chief Baron and other Barons until the said further Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds and all Interest for the same be satisfied and paid in manner aforesaid, and which were likewise assigned to the said Lord Chief Baron and other Barons as a Security for the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds and the Interest for the same as aforesaid, shall immediately thereupon be and remain vested in the said Lord Chief Baron and other Barons of the said Court of Exchequer in Scotland, until not only the said first mentioned Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds, together with the said further Sum of Twenty five thousand Pounds and Five thousand Pounds in already advanced as aforesaid, and all Interest for the same respectively, but also the said Sum of Nineteen thousand four hundred Pounds which shall be so paid to the said Commissioners under the Provision of this Act, together with Interest for the same at and after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, shall be completely paid or satisfied in the same manner and as fully and effectually as if another Assignment thereof had been made; and which Interest for the said Sum of Nineteen thousand four hundred Pounds, shall be paid Half yearly by the said Company of Proprietors of the Grimsay Canal into the said Court of Exchequer as the End of every Six Months from the Day of the Admission of the said Sum of Nineteen thousand four hundred Pounds.

III. And be it further enacted, That a Statement of all the Proceedings of the said Commissioners, and a general Account of the Money received and disbursed by them, or under their Direction, by virtue of this Act, shall be annually, before the First Day of June, laid before both Houses of Parliament, together with the Annual Statement or Report of the said Commissioners relative to the Grimsay Canal.

An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act of the First Year of the Reign of King James the First, intituled An Act for the better Relief of the Creditors against such as shall become Bankrupts.

[24 July 1816.]

WHEREAS in and by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King James the First, intituled An Act for the better Relief of the Creditors against such as shall become Bankrupts, it was amongst other things enacted, that no Debtor of a Bankrupt should be thereby endangered for the Payment of his or her Debt truly and lawfully due to any such Bankrupt, before such time as he should be bound or know that he was become Bankrupt: And Whereas the Provisions of the said Statute have been found to be beneficial, and it is also expedient to make such Provisions respecting the Delivery of Goods, Wares, Merchandises and Effects as are hereinafter contained: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, Joint Stock or other Company, having in his, her or their Possession or Custody any Goods, Wares, Merchandises or Effects belonging to any Person or Persons who shall be or become Bankrupt, shall be endangered for or by reason of the Delivery of any such Goods, Wares, Merchandises or Effects truly and lawfully due to such Person or Persons, or to his, her or their Order, before such time as the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, Joint Stock or other Company, having such Goods, Wares, Merchandises or Effects in his or their Possession or Custody, shall understand or know that the Person or Persons to whom such Goods, Wares, Merchandises or Effects do or shall belong, is or are become Bankrupt.

II. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That in all cases in which it shall be proved that the Person or Persons acting on the behalf of any Body Politic or Corporate, Joint Stock or other Company, in the paying or causing or directing the Payment of any Debt, or in the delivering or causing or directing the Delivery of any Goods, Wares, Merchandises or Effects, to any Person or Persons, under fraud or knew that the Person or Persons or any of them to whom such Debt was paid, or such Goods, Wares, Merchandises or Effects were delivered, was or were or had become Bankrupt, such Body Politic or Corporate, Joint Stock or other Company, shall be deemed and taken to have understood and known the same.

C. A. P. CXXXVIII.

An Act to abolish the Punishment of the Pillory, except in certain cases.

[24 July 1816.]

WHEREAS the Punishment of the Pillory has in many cases been found inconvenient and not fully to answer the Purpose for which it was intended: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act Judgment shall not be given and awarded against any Person or Persons convicted of any Offence, that such Person or Persons do find in or upon the Pillory, except for the Offences hereinafter mentioned; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided that all Laws now in force whereby any Person is subject to Punishment for the taking any false Oath, or for committing any manner of wilful and corrupt Perjury, or for the procuring or suborning any other Person so to do, or for wilfully, falsely and corruptly affirming or declaring, or procuring or suborning any other Person so to affirm and declare, in any matter or thing, which if the same had been disposed in the usual Form would have amounted to wilful and corrupt Perjury, shall continue and be in full Force and Effect; and that all Persons guilty of any of the said Offences shall incur and suffer the same Punishment, Penalties and Forfeitures as such Persons were subject to by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, or any of them, before the passing of this Act and as if this Act had not been made.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Punishment of the Pillory has hitherto formed the whole or a Part of the Judgment to be pronounced, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom such Offence is tried, to pass such Sentence of Fine or Imprisonment, or of both, in lieu of the Sentence of Pillory, as to the said Court shall seem most proper: Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend in any manner to change, alter or affect any Punishment whatsoever which may now be by Law inflicted in respect of any Offence, except only the Punishment of Pillory, in manner as herein above is enacted.

to suitable Persons, is frequently rendered of no avail: For Remedy whereof, he is enabled by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of October in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, before any Child shall be bound Apprentice by the Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, Township, or Place, such Child shall be carried before Two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division or Place wherein such Parish, Township or Place shall be situate, who shall enquire into the Propriety of binding such Child Apprentice to the Person or Persons to whom it shall be proposed by such Overseers to bind such Child; and such Justices shall particularly enquire and consider whether such Person or Persons reside, or have resided, or shall reside or be about to reside, at or near the Place or Places of Business within a reasonable Distance from the Place to which such Child shall belong, having regard to the Means of Communication between such Places, or whether any Circumstances shall render it fit, in the Judgment of such Justices, that such Child should be placed Apprentice at a greater Distance; and if the Father or Mother of such Child shall be living, and shall reside in or near the Place to which such Child shall belong, such Justices shall (if they see fit) enquire such Father or Mother, or either of them, and shall particularly enquire as to the Distance of the Residence or Place of Business of the Person or Persons to whom it shall be proposed to place such Child, and the Means of Communication thereunto; and such Justices shall also enquire into the Circumstances and Character of such Person or Persons; and if such Justices shall, upon such Examination and Enquiry, think it proper that such Child should be bound Apprentice to such Person or Persons, such Justices shall make an Order, declaring that such Person or Persons is or are fit Person or Persons to whom such Child may be properly bound as Apprentice, and shall thereupon order that the Overseer or Overseers of the Place to which such Child shall belong, shall be at Liberty to bind such Child Apprentice accordingly; which Order shall be delivered to such Overseer or Overseers, as the Warrant for binding such Child Apprentice is directed, and such Order shall be referred to by the Date thereof, and the Names of the said Justices in the Indenture of Apprenticeship of such Child; and after such Order shall have been made, such Justices shall sign their Allowance of such Indenture of Apprenticeship, before the same shall be executed by any of the other Parties thereto: Provided always, that no such Child shall be bound Apprentice to any Person or Persons residing or having any Establishment in Trade, at which it is intended that such Child shall be employed out of the same County, at a greater Distance than Forty Miles from the Parish or Place to which such Child shall belong, unless such Child shall belong to some Parish or Place which shall be more than Forty Miles from the City of London, in which case it shall be lawful for the Justices who shall authorize the apprenticeship of such Child to make a special Order for that Purpose, in which Order such Justices shall distinctly specify the Grounds on which they shall think fit to allow of the apprenticeship of such Child to a Person or Persons residing, or having an Establishment in Trade, at a greater Distance than Forty Miles from the Parish or Place to which such Child shall belong.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Residence or Establishment of Business of the Person or Persons to whom any Child shall be bound, shall be within a different County or Jurisdiction of the Peace, from that within which the Place by the Officers whereof such Child shall be bound shall be situated, and in all other cases where the Justices of the Peace for the District or Place within which the Place by the Officers whereof such Child shall be bound shall be situated, and who shall sign the Allowance of the Indenture by which such Child shall be bound, shall not have Jurisdiction, every Indenture by which such Child shall be bound at any time after the first Day of October shall be allowed as well by Two Justices of the Peace for the County or District within which the Place by the Officers of which such Child shall be bound shall be situated, as by Two Justices of the Peace for the County or District within which the Place shall be situated wherein such Child shall be bound to serve: Provided always, that an Indenture shall be allowed by any Justice of the Peace for the County into which such Child shall be bound, who shall be engaged in the same Business, Employment or Manufacture in which the Person to whom such Child shall be bound is engaged; and Notice shall be given to the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Place in which such Child shall be intended to be bound as Apprenticeship, before any Justice of the Peace for the County or District within which such Parish or Place shall be, shall allow such Indenture; and such Notice shall be proved before such Justice shall sign such Indenture, unless One of such Overseers shall attend such Justice, and admit such Notice.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That the Allowance of Two Justices of the Peace for the County, within which the Place in which such Child shall be intended to serve as Apprenticeship shall be situated, shall be valid and effectual, although such Place may be situated in a Town or Liberty within which any other Justice of the Peace may in other respects have an exclusive Jurisdiction.

IV. And Whereas there are several Cities and Boroughs which are Counties of themselves, and several Districts situated without the Limits of the County to which such Districts respectively belong: Be it enacted, That the Distance to which Parish Apprentices may be bound, shall not be construed to be limited to such Cities and Boroughs being Counties, but shall extend to the County in which any such City and Borough, and any such District, though belonging to another County, shall be locally situated.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Settlement shall be gained by any Child who shall be bound by the Officers of any Parish, Township or Place, by reason of such Apprenticeship, unless such Order shall be made, and such Allowance of such Indenture of Apprenticeship shall be signed, as hereinbefore directed.

VI. And be it enacted, That in case any Overseer or Overseers shall bind as Apprentice to any Person or Persons, without having obtained such Order and such Allowance as hereinbefore required, and in case any Person or Persons shall receive any such Apprentice as is bound, without such Order and Allowance as here-been first obtained, the said Overseer or Overseers, and the said Parson or Parsons, shall each respectively within the Sum of Two Pounds, for each Apprentice so bound, to be recovered as the Penalties hereinafter given are directed to be recovered.

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of October it shall not be lawful for any Parish Officers to bind out any Child as Parish Apprentice, until such Child shall have attained the Age of Nine Years, any thing to any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Parson or Parsons to whom any Child shall be bound as Apprentice by the Overseers of the Poor of any Parish or Place, shall after the said First Day of October remove his, her or their Residence or Establishment of Business, out of the same County or Forty Miles from the Parish or Place where the same was when such Child was bound as Apprentice, such Parson or Parsons shall, at least Fourteen Days previous to such Removal, give a written Notice thereof to the Churchwarden or Overseers of the Poor of the Place where such Apprentice shall there reside, under such Notice or Notices shall be made as such Place under Constitution and or Statute in such Notice shall give the true Notice to the Churchwarden or Overseers of the Poor of the Place where such Apprentice shall then be legally settled, and also the Master or Mistress, and also the Master or Mistress of such Apprentice, shall cause such Apprentice to appear before Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County or District within which such Apprentice shall be then residing, who shall enquire whether it may be fit and proper that such Apprentice should continue in the Service of such Parson or Parsons, or be discharged therefrom, or bound or assigned over to any other Parson or Parsons, and shall thereupon make order, either for the Continuance of such Apprentices with such Parson or Parsons, or for the Discharge of such Apprentice, or for the binding or assigning of such Apprentice to any other Person, a to them in their Discretion shall seem meet, and if they shall be fit, shall also require the Parson or Parsons to give Notice of Removal, to pay the Amount of the Penalties awarded with such Apprentice, or such Portion of it as to them shall seem meet, for the Expense of assigning or binding such Apprentice to any other Person, to be approved by the said Justices; and the Parson or Parsons to whom such Apprentice shall be bound or assigned, shall be subject to the same Rules and Regulations as the Parson or Parsons to whom such Apprentice shall be originally bound; and in case any such Master or Masters, Mistress or Mistresses, shall remove as aforesaid, and shall take any such Apprentice to any other Place, without such Order as aforesaid, or shall wilfully abandon and leave any such Apprentice, without giving such Notice as aforesaid, every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds for every such Apprentice, to the Churchwarden and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Township or Place, wherein, at the time of such Removal or Taking, the Apprentice shall have been legally settled, for the Use of the Poor of the same Parish, Township or Place; provided an Information shall be exhibited for such Offence within Three Calendar Months next after the Commission of the same.

X. And Whereas it may be expedient, that that to whom Parish Apprentices are bound or assigned should be empowered to place out or assign over such Apprentice to another, and it is proper that such placing out or Assignments should in all Instances be under the Inspection and Consent of the Magistrates; and it is fit that the Persons to whom such putting out or Assignments shall be made, and also the Apprentices, shall be made subject to the ordinary Jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace, with respect to Masters and Parish Apprentices; and it is expedient that any Master or Mistress should in any way discharge or dismiss from his or her Service, any Parish Apprentice without the Consent of such Justices; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of October in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, it shall not be lawful for any Master or Mistress to put away or transfer any Parish Apprentice to any other, or in any way to discharge or dismiss from his or her Service any Parish Apprentice without such Consent of Justices, as is directed in an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the further Regulation of Parish Apprentices; and that no Disturbance shall be gained by any Service of such Apprentices, after such putting away or Transfer, whilst such Service shall have been performed under the Sanction of such Consent as aforesaid.

XI. And be it further enacted, That any Parson or Parsons, who, after the First Day of October in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, shall put away or transfer any Parish Apprentice to another, or who shall in any way discharge or dismiss from his or her Service any Parish Apprentice without such Consent as aforesaid, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Two Pounds, for every Apprentice so transferred.

XII. And Whereas the Statutory Provisions enacted by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act for the Relief of the Poor, are frequently evaded in the binding out of Poor Children, and the Penalties of Apprenticeship, or a Pen themselves, is abundantly provided by Parish Officers, who are thus enabled to bind out such Poor Children without the Sanction of Justices of Peace; Be it further enacted, That after the said First Day of October, no Indenture of Apprenticeship by reason of which any Expense whatever shall at any time be incurred by the Public Poorhouse Funds, shall be valid and effectual, unless approved of by Two Justices of the Peace, under their Hands and Seals, according to the Provisions of the said Act and of this Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures to be recovered for any Offence against this Act, shall and may be recovered by Information before any Two Justices of the Peace of the County or District where such Offence shall be committed.

XIV.
